"A boba spot wouldn't be a boba spot without popcorn chicken," Phil Wang says. "The way we do it though it's all white meat. It's served with fried Thai basil in there."

He continues, "Popcorn chicken is commonly served with Thai basil, so we decided to make it into a sauce -- a Thai basil aoli. And you can't find it anywhere else and it's amazing."

-Shanna Mendiola and Azucena Varela, NBC Los Angeles

"Waiting on the sidewalk is part of the routine here, where the menu covers a huge swath of Vietnamese standards. Neither too fatty nor too sweet, the pho has a subtle complexity other restaurants can't consistently achieve, and the cha gio (fried egg roll) is ideal, with a crisp amber wrapper surrounding ground pork, mushroom, and cellophane noodles.
